

April 2016:

In April, daytime highs averaged slightly below normal across the appellation while overnight lows averaged below normal. Accumulated base 10 °C growing degree days were below normal for April. Accumulated growing degree days were above 2014 and 2015 values at Hillier and above 2015 values but below 2014 values at Cherry Valley. Rainfall across Prince Edward County was on average 56 % of normal for April. Rain events totaling less than 16 mm per day occurred during the month with precipitation mainly falling on April 1, 11, and 26.

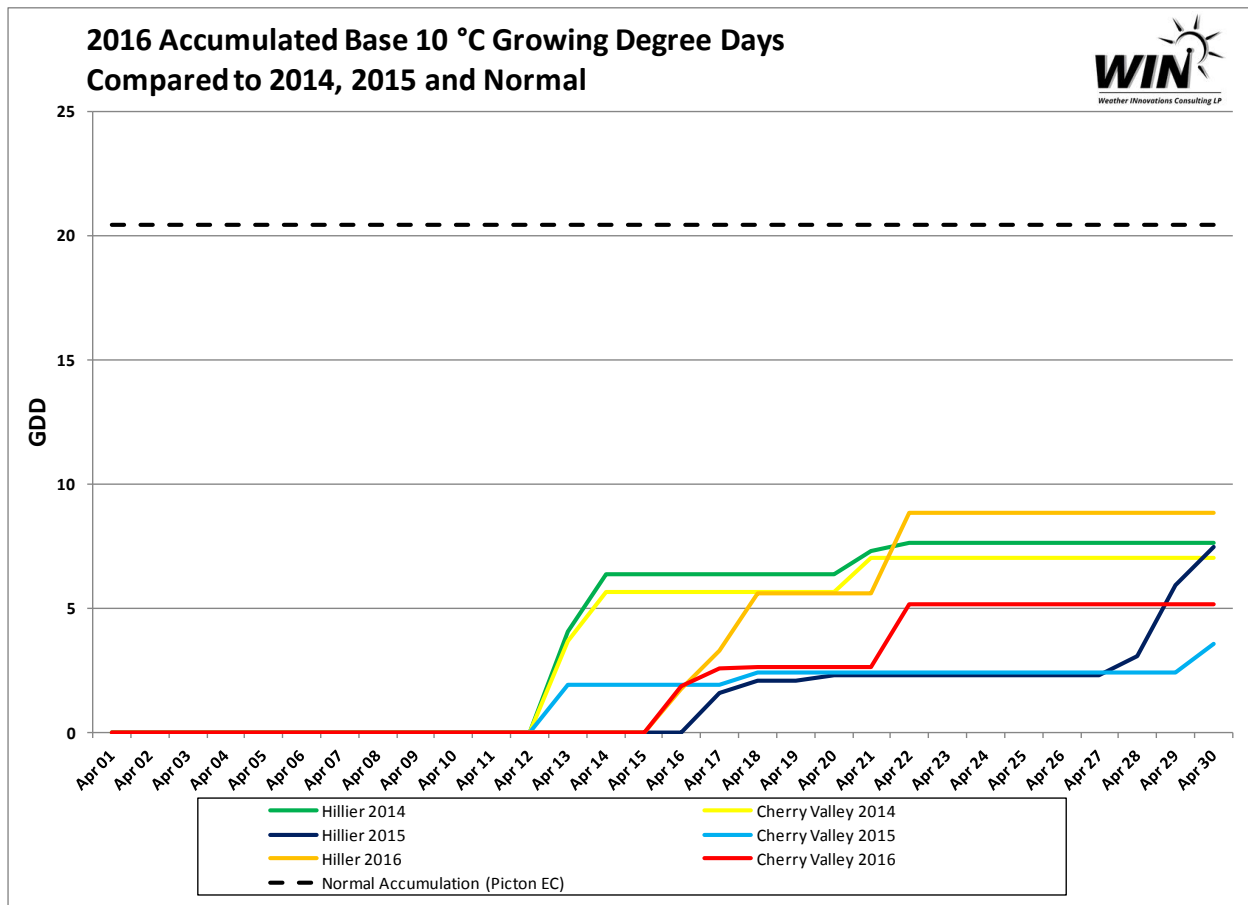

Figure 1: Growing Degree Days

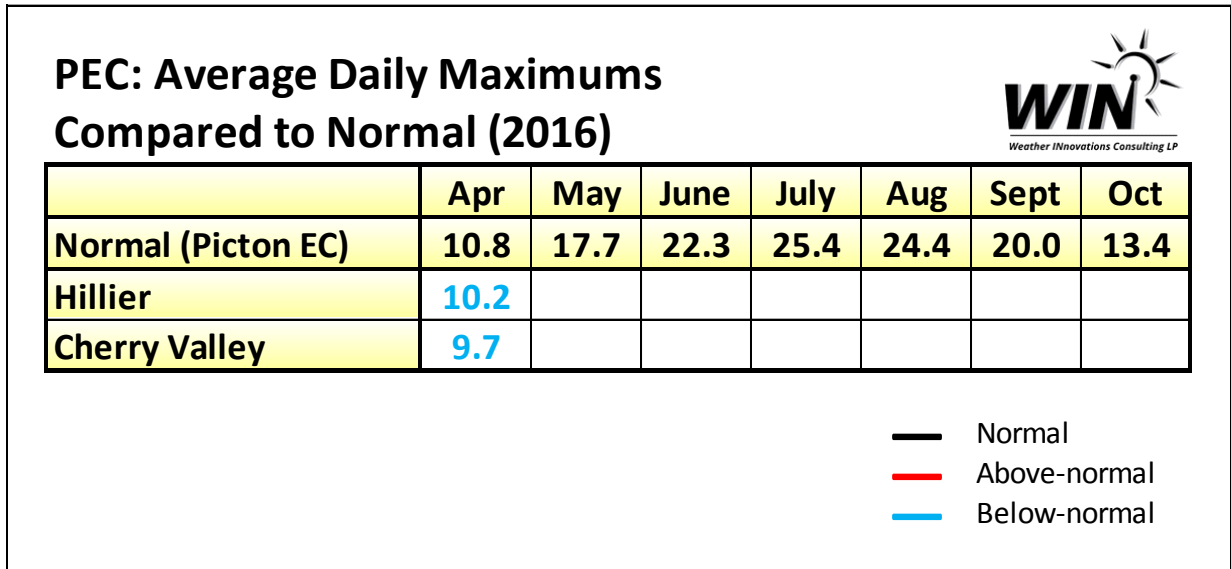

Figure 2: Maximum Temperatures

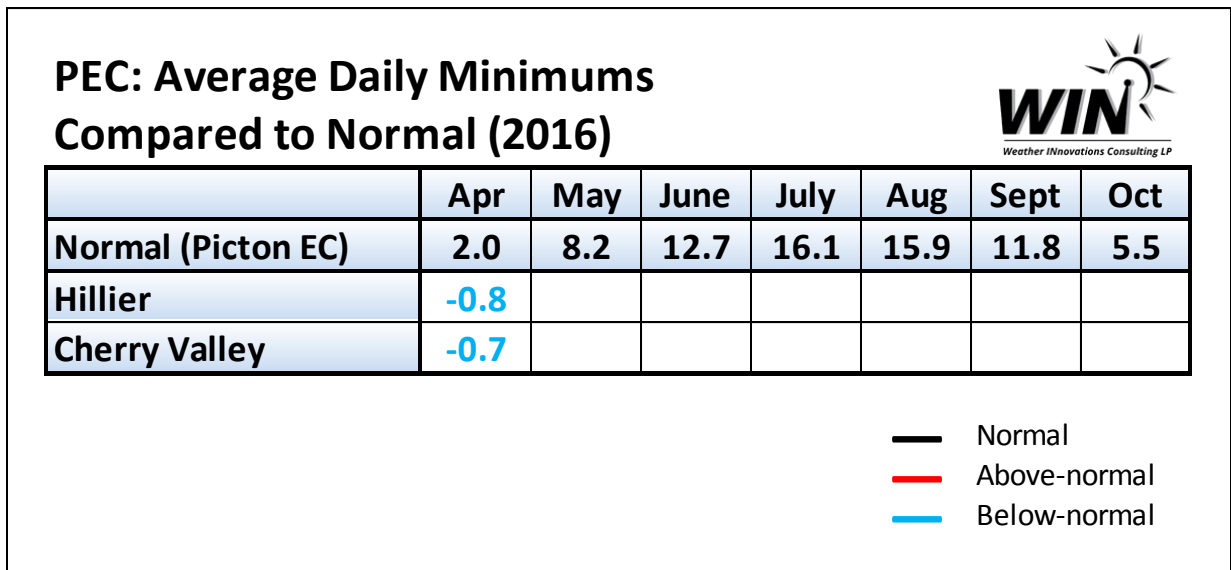

Figure 3: Minimum Temperatures

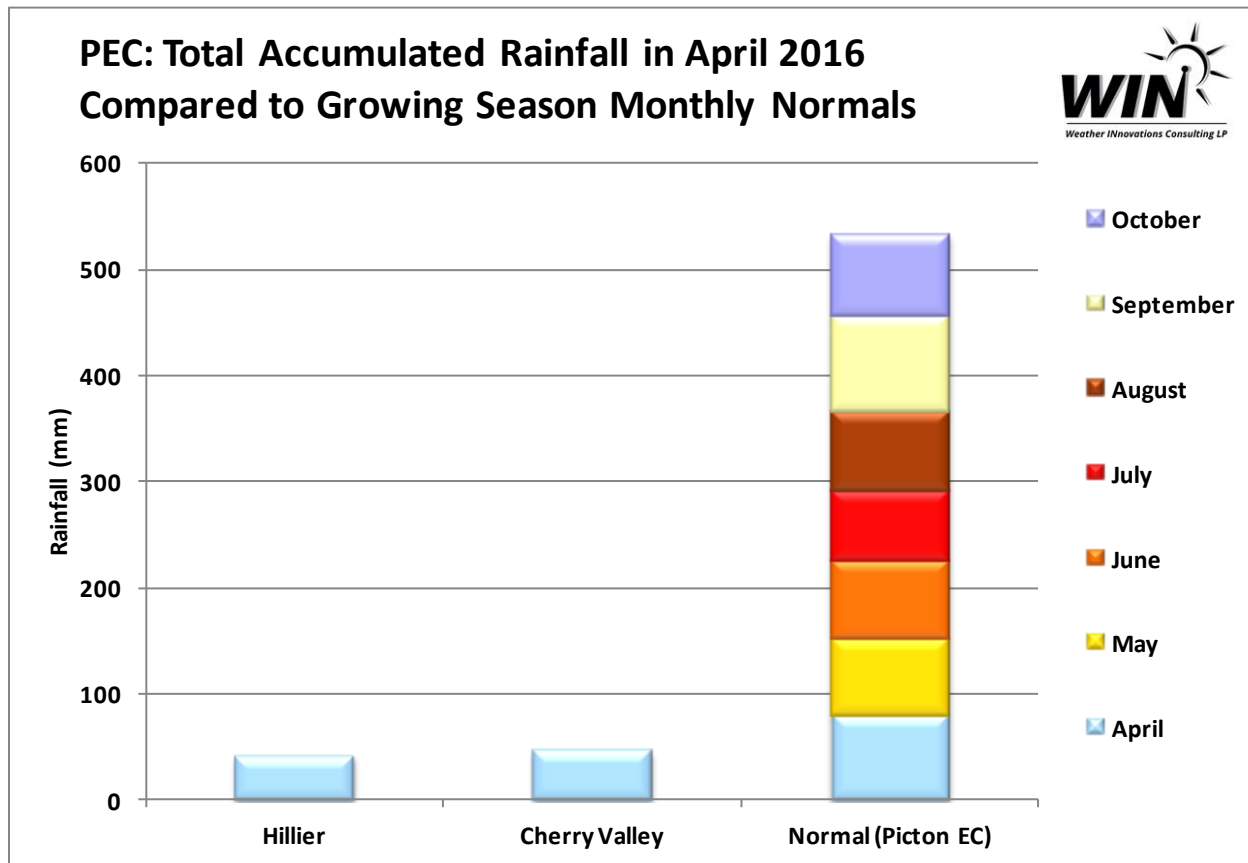

Figure 4: Rainfall